Wake up

So let this twisted journey begin
I've turned my back on this place
Cause I don't wanna fit in
Deep down, I always knew this was wrong
It's time you find out the truth
It's on the tip of my tongue

Fuck you, you don't know a thing about me
Because you're living in a dream world it's a conspiracy
So wake up, wake up
Just fucking wake up, wake up

Forever in the cold
It was tearing at my soul
So tell me now you know
How it feels to be alone

Breathless, even the air that I breathe
Is like a poison in my lungs it's fucking torturing me
It's hopeless, feels like I'm lost out at sea
Spent my life time looking for a fucking life line cause I gotta break free

I'm walking away and you know that I won't look back
I won't look back
I'm never coming back

Forever in the cold
It was tearing at my soul
So tell me now you know
How it feels to be alone

My fucking name is on this bullet
It's loaded cocked and locked just pull it
Give me one more reason do it
Just give me one more reason, I'm begging you

My fucking name is on this bullet
It's loaded cocked and locked just pull it
Give me one more reason do it
I'm begging you

Forever in the cold
It was tearing at my soul
So tell me now you know
How it feels to be alone

Wake up
Wake up
Wake up
