

Too Far Gone

InVisions

Yeah, we're still turning up
We still don't give a fuck
You're still damaged like us
Can't come back 'cause you'll never be the same without it
We're still turning up
We still don't give a fuck
You're still damaged like us
Yeah, we're back and we're only fucking getting started

God damn how did this happen again?
'Cause from the moment that we walked in you know we're down till the end
Fuck the consequence, the fever is setting in
If you know how we roll, grab a bottle and let this shit begin

Yeah, we're still turning up
We still don't give a fuck
You're still damaged like us
Can't come back 'cause you'll never be the same without it
We're still turning up
We still don't give a fuck
You're still damaged like us
Yeah, we're back and we're only fucking getting started

I'm always hearing people sayin' that we're outta control
You're not my homie, you don't know me, shit, it's how we roll
Let me hear it for the heartless embracing the darkness
Damaged broken beaten souls
Yeah we're all fucked
Blegh

You wanna judge us for the way that we live
How 'bout you shut your fucking mouth, your opinion means dick
Yeah, I bet you loathe this shit

Yeah, we're still turning up
We still don't give a fuck
You're still damaged like us
Can't come back 'cause you'll never be the same without it
We're still turning up
We still don't give a fuck
You're still damaged like us
Yeah, we're back and we're only fucking getting started
We're still turning up
(We're still turning up)
We still don't give a fuck
Can't come back 'cause you'll never be the same without it
We're still turning up
We still don't give a fuck
You're still damaged like us

'Cause we will never fucking change
And if we're broken, yeah, that's okay
We wouldn't want it any other way
Other way, yeah (Yeah)
'Cause we will never fucking change
And if we're broken, yeah, that's okay
We wouldn't want it any other way

Other way, yeah

You've got something to say, you're straight out of luck
Check our middle fingers up, screaming we don't give a fuck (What, what?)
You've got something to say you're straight out of luck
Check our middle fingers up, screaming we don't give a single fuck
We don't give a single fuck
