

Feels like I'm worlds away (Worlds away)
No reason I should stay (I should stay)
Fearing the worst in me (Worst in me)
I'm weaker every day
This wishful thinking, can't stop me sinking

Every second feels like an hour
And every hour feels the fucking same (The same)
This open letter I've written to myself
To alleviate the blame
I never thought that I could sink so low
I never thought I'd end up here
It's like I sold my soul to save myself
But someone bribed the auctioneer
I've lost myself, I'm faded (Faded)
A hostage in my mind created

Say it again, say it again
I need to hear it
Say it again, say it again
I won't believe it
The darkest light I have known
A shadow here on its own

Feels like I'm worlds away (Worlds away)
No reason I should stay (I should stay)
Fearing the worst in me (Worst in me)
I'm weaker every day
This wishful thinking, can't stop me sinking

No, am I the only one
Who cannot see it, won't believe it, said what's done is done?
What have I become?
I'm laying broken like a victim of a hit and run
Never ending
Still pretending
Fuck, it never ends
Can't keep telling myself it's just a matter of time

Someone please say that there's a light above the cliff face ahead
Just out of sight, cut through the night and pull me out my head
It's here, the fear I'm fighting with myself to bury the dead
No matter how hard I try, this dread I cannot shed

Say it again, say it again
I need to hear it
Say it again, say it again
I won't believe it
The darkest light I have known
A shadow here on its own (Its own)

Feels like I'm worlds away (Worlds away)
No reason I should stay (I should stay)
Fearing the worst in me (Worst in me)
I'm weaker every day
This wishful thinking, can't stop me sinking
No reason I should stay (I should stay)

Fearing the worst in me (Worst in me)
I'm weaker every day
This wishful thinking, can't stop me sinking
