

HERE IS A WARNING

ionnalee

In his veins, his blood flow
To the centre of his soul
It boils into breeding
Warmth that needs receiving

Here is a warning for you
Falling out, falling out, falling out
Of love
Of love

To and from, high and low
Transient times, tidal flow
A strain on your body
Draining the soul

Here is a warning for you
Falling out, falling out, falling out
Of love

Here is a warning for you
Falling out, falling out, falling out
Of love

Rapids of blood will flow
Feeding the urge, he grows
Of all my desire
But our time is up now
