

REMEMBER THE FUTURE

ionnalee

Remember the dream
Remember the dream
Remember the dream

Remember the thirst, a hunger for more
Remember the future, the simple hope
Remember the dream, always rising
Remember the future, true and pure
This is not the ending

Moving forth without a reason
Find another kind of truth
Try expanding the horizon
With our heads into the blue
Floating freely, use no pressure
Hear beyond this frequency
And my skin burns from the fire
As it flares inside of me

And if I wake, it doesn't matter
If reality's a dream
If these thoughts are all we have
Then the future's still unseen

Remember the thirst, a hunger for more
Remember the future, the simple hope
Remember the dream, always rising
(Remember the dream, remember the dream)
(Remember the dream, remember the dream)
Remember the future, true and pure
(Remember the dream, remember the dream)
(Remember the dream)
This is not the ending

(Remember the dream, remember the dream)
Everybody has them
(Remember the dream, remember the dream)

So you're lost in this dimension
Seeking recipes of youth
Solve the riddle, live forever
Watch it over in review
No solutions, no real motion
Licking sadness from your cheek
And my fingers turn to ashes
As they brush against your weakness

And I hate that I can't help them
That it's fact, not fantasy
It's these thoughts, they're all we have
But the future's still unseen

It's fact, not fantasy
Everybody has them
Ah
(Remember the dream)

Remember the thirst, a hunger for more
Remember the future, the simple hope
Remember the dream, always rising
Remember the future, true and pure
This is not the ending
Remember the dream, always rising
Remember the future, true and pure
This is not the ending

Remember the dream, remember the dream
Remember the dream, remember the dream
Remember the dream, remember the dream
