

Life of the party, Annie was 23
California girl wore her heart right on her sleeve
One night as she left the bar, drunk driver took her life away
So young could have gone so far
Oh what a price to pay

Do broken hearts eventually mend?
I hope one day I get to see you again
And hear you say

Life will pass you by
If you don't take a minute to
Stop and think about why
Slow down take
A breath
Enjoy yourself and don't forget this
Just remember to smile
Remember to smile

In the special forces
Kyle made his country proud
Always pushed the limit
And never could slow down
Crossed an ocean to fight a war
Came back, just wasn't the same
All alone when he left the world
Thought it was his only way

Do broken hearts eventually mend?
I hope one day I get to see you again
And hear you say

Life will pass you by
If you don't take a minute to
Stop and think about why
Slow down take
A breath
Enjoy yourself and don't forget this
Just remember to smile
Remember to smile

Life will pass you by
If you don't take a minute to
Stop and think about why
Slow down take
A breath
Enjoy yourself and don't forget this
Just remember to smile
Remember to smile
Remember to smile

Remember to smile
