

Strange

Iration

We keep burning like a wildfire
Tearing through the hillside
Drowning out the skies turn black
Bracing for the landslide
Rivers all run dry
Living like we can't turn back
Caught up in a bad trip
Just can't get out of it
Running while the walls close in
Swim in misinformation
Searching for something sacred
While they watch the money roll in

And I hope when I'm gone
It won't be long
'Til we're back where we belong
Can't wait 'til we're gone
To move it along
Back to where we belong

Times are a-changing
What can I say?
Temperature rising
Every day
We just deny it
And sit in the shade
When did things get so strange?
Why are we fighting?
With nothing to gain
Lining their pockets
Playing their games
Ooh ooh
When did things get so strange?

Sometimes it's hard to know
Who is a friend or foe
That's when you know you gotta go your own way
And if you feel it in your heart and your soul
Use your voice, let 'em know you've got something to say
If somebody saw me doing what you're doing, yea you better believe
They'd be calling me out
(Calling me out)
So I'm calling you out
(Calling you out)

Times are a-changing
What can I say?
Temperature rising
Every day
We just deny it
And sit in the shade
When did things get so strange?
Why are we fighting?
With nothing to gain
Lining their pockets
Playing their games
Ooh ooh

When did things get so strange?

When did things get so strange?

And I hope when I'm gone
It won't be long
'Til we're back where we belong
Can't wait 'til we're gone
To move it along
Back to where we belong

Whoa
Whoa
Whoa
When did things get so strange?
Whoa
Whoa
Whoa
When did things get so strange?

Times are a-changing
What can I say?
Temperature rising
Every day
We just deny it
And sit in the shade
When did things get so strange?
Why are we fighting?
With nothing to gain
Lining their pockets
Playing their games
Ooh ooh

When did things get so strange?
When did things get so strange?
When did things get so strange?
