

The Stream

Iration

Listen to the river singin' sweet songs
Tap into your soul in the stream of consciousness
Sink into the banks of this fertile land
Follow in the tracks written in the sand
Wanna dip my toe
Feel the water flowin' over
Watch these ragged rocks 'til they turn to smooth stones
So take me for a walk
We don't have to talk
We can just be
Yea we can just be

Lately I've been thinking
Wanna catch my mind
Just trying to slow down
From the perpetual ride
I've been lost on a journey
But it has no end
Just a new beginning waiting for me 'round the bend
So tell me that you'll miss me
So I know you care
At times I'm lonely
At times I'm scared
But I keep coming back for
Just one more line
Just one more high
Just one more time

Take me for a walk
We don't have to talk
We can just be
Yea we can just be

So many questions of life
All these uncertainties
Interrogating my mind
Givin' me the third degree
Livin' on limited time
So we live tirelessly
You'll always be by my side
For all eternity
I can see it in your eyes
Falling down as you pass by
Floating to me through the mist
Slipping through my fingertips
So tell me that you need me
'Cause you know I care
Just one more night
Just one more prayer
Staring off into the distance
As far as I can see
Let's close our eyes
And we can just be
