

I Miss A Lot Of Trains

Iris DeMent

When the train pulls in the station you'll be waiting at the track You're having troubles sleeping nights and you want me to come back That old train just rolls on by you're gonna know I never came 'cause I sleep good and I miss a lot of trains

I sleep good and I miss a lot of trains
That one-way trek to no man's love
I will never ride again
I used to lie awake like you just calling out your name
but now I sleep good and I miss a lot of trains

You're standing in the station
I can see you in my mind
You think that I'll return again but you're so wrong this time Your sleepless eyes and selfish heart will be waiting there in vain while I sleep good and I miss a lot of trains

I sleep good and I miss a lot of trains
That one-way trek to no man's love
I will never ride again
I used to lie awake like you
just calling out your name
but now I sleep good and I miss a lot of trains

Now I sleep good and I miss a lot of trains
