

I Still Miss Someone

Iris DeMent

At my door the leaves are falling
And a cold, wild wind soon will come
Sweethearts walk by together
And I still miss someone

Well, I never got over those blue eyes
And I see them everywhere
And I miss those arms that held me
When all the love was there

Well, I go out on a party
And I look for a little fun
But I find a darkened corner
'cause I still miss someone

Well, I never got over those blue eyes
And I see them everywhere
And I miss those arms that held me
When all the love was there

Well, I wonder if he's sorry
For leaving what we had become
Well, there's someone for me somewhere
But I still miss someone

Well, I never got over those blue eyes
And I see them everywhere
And I miss those arms that held me
When all the love was there
