

Cruel Silence

Iris

Tell, where we going now
Feel, we'll avoid disaster

I can feel your soul, I can hear your last laugh
Tearing through my veins while awake at night
I can feel our soul
I can hear your last laugh
Echoing inside, while I'm bathed in my cruel silence

Fear is an awful lie
Searing in a cruel deception

I can feel your soul, I can hear your last laugh
Tearing through my veins while awake at night
I can feel our soul
I can hear your last laugh
Echoing inside, while I'm bathed in my cruel silence

So what do you say
Did I ever have you anyway
I so want to stay
All my separate lives
Only one is the way

I can feel your soul, I can hear your last laugh
Tearing through my veins while awake at night
I can feel our soul
I can hear your last laugh
Echoing inside, while I'm bathed in my cruel silence
