

In the Clear

Iris

Come no closer
I am not yet over
Morphing into color
In a sea of light
I love you all

And I'll disappear
Vaporizing
A phantom in thin air
To be invisible is without fear
I exist in the clear

Yearning forward
Ever since I yondered
Let the sun rise over
Where the water's calling my name

And I'll disappear
Vanish with no trace
Into thin air I erase
I feel invisible
Left without fear
I exist in the clear

It's not as real, it's not as real
To lead by tone and guide by feel
I'm not as real, I'm not as real
I'm not as real, I'm not as real

Yearning forward
Ever since I yondered
Let the sun rise over
Where the water's calling my name

And I disappear
Vaporizing
You never see a thing
'Cause I'm invisible
Roam without fear
I was born in the clear
