

Price I Have To Pay

Iris

In my way, only I
Was it only in my mind?

And the storm is coming my way
'Cause there's always a price to pay
I rely on a saving grace
But there's always a price I have to pay

You are pure, when you try
Every thought you must think twice

I can't get it to stay away
'Cause there's always a price to pay
I rely on a saving grace
But there's always a price I have to pay
It's a price I have to pay
"It's a price I have to pay"

And in the end the stars will fail to light
And send us to a permanent goodnight
And as the light preceded once before us
The dark will only leave us here to rust

And the storm is coming my way
'Cause there's always a price to pay
I rely on a saving grace
But there's always a price I have to pay
It's a price I have to pay
It's a price I have to pay
