

The Marianas Depths

Iris

Yeah, he gets you let's race it
The lines were drawn into space
Why he's so good at pretense
You don't know good till it's been staged

You think you're lost
When all the lights go out
In the Marianas depths you won't ever doubt
Sink inside a calm blue sea
Yeah the Marianas depth's the place to be

You see right through It's basic
The view's as clear as it gets
You will be reawakening
Soon and you just know yet

You think you're lost
When all the lights go out
