

The Picture

Iris

Don't know how I'm going to tell you this
Now I'm feeling so confused
And I know you'll be mad
If you took a look in my eyes

Back at home where I belong
Back at home it seems so wrong
To be treated again
My fair lady loves me so well
She'll forgive me

Then she took a look in my eyes
She saw a picture of you
Maybe you were her in disguise
And I was never untrue

Surely you will understand
I must take my life in hand
And forget all of it
You don't need me hanging around
Love is waiting
