Sit Down And Cry

Irma Thomas

Baby, no one could have told me
How could they have told me
What they didn't know
And I sit down and cry
I sit down and cry
I sit down and cry my heart out over you

Baby, no one could have warned me
That you would hurt me so bad
And I sit down and cry
I sit down and cry
I sit down and cry my heart out

Never believe
That lips as sweet as yours
Sweeter than honey from a bee
Who would ever believe
Those same sweet lips lie just like you lie to me

Baby, no one could have told me
That you would have sold me down the river so fast
And I sit down and cry
I sit down and cry
I sit down and cry my heart out
