

You Can Think Twice

Irma Thomas

I'm not kiddin', babe
It's time we're through
I'm not waiting up
No more while you
Spend your every night
Lovin' everybody but me

I've been a fool, but I ain't no more
Tonight I'm walking out that door

And if you think that I'll miss crying
'Cause you just won't love me right
If you think I'll miss the heartache
You can think twice (ooo-ah)
You can think twice (ooo-ah)

Used to think my love
Could make you change
In your arms I thought
A lot of thangs
Baby, you're a dream
But you're a dream that don't come true

Now I might miss you now and then
But don't expect me back again

And if you think that I'll miss crying
'Cause you just won't love me right
If you think I'll miss the heartache
You can think twice (ooo-ah)
You can think twice (ooo-ah)

Yeah, I might miss you now and then
But don't expect me back again

And if you think that I'll miss crying
'Cause you just won't love me right
If you think I'll miss the heartache
You can think twice (ooo-ah)
You can think twice (ooo-ah)
