

Hail To Odin

Iron Fire

From the shores of the sea we come not as friends but as enemies guided by the north star warriors side by side we travel far

Over mountains covered by snow protected by Odin everywhere we go come as shadows in the night but soon the steel will shine so bright

At dawn the slaughter will begin the mighty northern beast
burning corpses and drinking blood this battle we will win

Hail hail, hail to Odin
Hail hail we keep on fighting in thunder and lightning
hail hail we keep on fighting
with thunder and lightning comes the last Viking

Scull crashing maniacs the blood and gore will cover all the tracks vanish like ghost in black the legion of butchers will soon be back

hail hail we keep on fighting

When the eagles fly and a brother die We'll meet again in Valhalla the hall of the brave will be our grave we all unite with the gods of war

Smashing the skulls of all enemies we are not afraid of anything breaking their bones burning all down in the end I hold the crown

I hold the crown

Father Odin
