

Stand As King

Iron Fire

Feeling down like never before
Like a spirit's been beaten in war
Wind in your face without luck on your back
Waiting like a shark to attack

Striking hard when no one expects it
We're rising higher
Like a statement the hammer will hit
In the name of Ironfire

Stand as king, let the legions unite
Armed and ready to fight
Stand as king, feel the power in light
Heavy metal tonight's stand as king
Stand as king

Glory will come for those who will wait
And believe that it's never too late
When times get dark and blind your way
Remember there's a price to pay

Striking hard when no one expects it
We're rising higher
Like a statement the hammer will hit
In the name of Ironfire

Stand as king, let the legions unite
Armed and ready to fight
Stand as king, feel the power in light
Heavy metal tonight

You're not alone, everybody's got their own cross to bear
Stand up straight and walk the line
All for one, we leave no one behind

Die for the king
For the crown and the ring

Striking hard when no one expects it
We're rising higher
Like a statement the hammer will hit
In the name of Ironfire

Stand as king, let the legions unite
Armed and ready to fight
Stand as king, feel the power in light
Heavy metal tonight
Stand as king, let the legions unite
Armed and ready to fight
Stand as king, feel the power in light
Heavy metal tonight's stand as king
