Mother of Mercy

Iron Maiden

Sitting waiting in the falling rain Getting ready to begin again

Wounded lying crying Bodies moving dying All around there is the smell Of death and fire

Here the planes are coming Hear the soldiers running Killing on a scale to comprehend

Why are we here In this place... here to kill Please God forgive us for what we have done

I always though I was doing right As of now I'm not feeling so sure

I'm at a place of where I give no grace I'm a soldier of war

I sit waiting for my darkest hour To come I cannot think about the things That I have done It shouldn't take a fool to see That I believe Accept the consequence Repent for what I've done

You tell me what is certain But I'll tell you what is true You tell me what is honesty When all around is death and cruelty

The making of a man is fire Not giving in to our desires Within the truth that lies Within the only thing

Mother Of Mercy Angel of death desire Mother Of Mercy Taking my last breath of fire

Mother Of Mercy Angel of pain Mother Of Mercy Taking my last breath

Some say you are a lost cause Some say you're a Saint Just being here's an act of Suffering and restraint Walk down the long dark road To ruin panic not I'll die a lonely death of that I'm certain of

Sick of all the killing And the reek of death Will God tel me What religion is to man

I don't hold with bad religion Understand what's underneath it Now I come to think of it I just don't hold at all you know it

You say you are a holy man But what is it you do From where I stand is nothing But a hollow man I see

Mother Of Mercy Angel of death desire Mother Of Mercy Taking my last breath of fire

Mother Of Mercy Angel of pain Mother Of Mercy Taking my last breath

I'm just a lonely soldier fighting In a bloody hopeless war Don't know what I'm fighting Who it is or what I'm fighting for

Thought it was for money Make my fortune now I'm not So sure Seem to just have lost my way
