

Hellbreaker

Iron Savior

Hiding in the darkness like a shadow
Trying to control the fear
Battle lies ahead
The end of The Quest is near
I'm going down below
To the everlasting night
Where I hear you calling
In agony and fright

Evil is lurking
In the caves and caverns
Beware the attack
I'm coming for the rescue
And I'm coming for revenge
No turning back

From distant horizons
I carved my way back to you
Unbroken unvanquished
I'm breaking Hell for you

And when I close my eyes
It's you that's on my mind
The pain and the tears
Of leaving you behind
Across the heavens
I came back from the stars
To save you from
The atrocity of war

All guns are blazing
I'm spreading fire and death
I'm bringing you redemption
And I'm taking my revenge
With every single breath

From distant horizons
I carved my way back to you
Unbroken unvanquished
I'm breaking Hell for you

To move you out of harm
For you
I'm breaking Hell
To hold you back in my arms
Hellbreaker

From distant horizons
I carved my way back to you
Unbroken unvanquished
I'm breaking Hell

Far beyond the distant horizon
That moment in time
Kept me alive on the quest
Our love is Divine
And now I see you standing there

With tears in my eyes
Take my hand and ride
Ride with me back to the skies
