

Kill or Get Killed

Iron Savior

Far out beyond the void
An ancient dread resurrects from the dead
Born from evil - raised in hell
On the approach to sound the knell
For the worlds
The worlds and the universe
Armageddon is drawing near
The heralds are here

Locked in an banished
By judgment divine
Lost in oblivion
In torrents and tides of time
Torrents of time...

Born in the twilight
To conquer them all
To take what it needs to survive
Kill or get killed
Domination or fall
The only way to survive:
To kill them all!

Exploiting the grounds
To grow and expand
On blood and extinction
They're making their stand
Knowing no mercy and no remorse
Their breed is embarking
Towards the shores of the worlds
The worlds and the universe
A dark star will rise
To bring on demise

Bare of emotions - cold blooded minds
Finally leaving their prison behind
Death and decay
Angels of judgement day
judgement day

Born in the twilight
To conquer them all
To take what it needs to survive
Kill or get killed
Domination or fall
The only way to survive:
To kill them all!

"From the depths of evolution a genocidal species emerged. Their survival strategy: to wipe out all other life forms so they would not have to compete for resources. This resulted in total extinction of all other life. When they were about to emerge into space, the ancient civilizations created a barrier around their system, so they would not be able to leave. But now the seal is broken!"

Born in the twilight
To conquer them all

To take what it needs to survive
Kill or get killed
Domination or fall
The only way to survive...
And from the torrents of time
Evil is rising again
Kill or get killed
And conquer them all
Only the strong will survive
Kill them all!
Kill them all!
