Isaac Carree

With every eye to the sky, and every hand held high, I wanna make you the star tonight.

The one who upon hit the sea, the one who gave heart to be, I want the whole world to see the light.

So, make me transparent, to the stage and on to the heaven (here we go).

Cause, Lord, you're a superstar, and I wanna be wherever you are (so let me know).

See I'm your opening act, so I'ma fall way back (like a ghost).
It's you I want them to know.

Let's make it be famous, let every nation sing, praise to the king of kings.

Let's make it be famous, so the whole world will know, every sun gets its glow from you Lord. Let's make it be famous.

Some people talk about you, and they sing of you too. But what good does it do if they don't know ya?

See they don't know of your grace and all the sins you embraced, and how you took our place, oh Lord.

So, make me transparent, to the stage and on to the heaven (here we go).

Cause, Lord, you're a superstar, and I wanna be wherever you are (so let me know).

See I'm your opening act, so I'ma fall way back (like a ghost).
It's you I want them to know.

Let's make it be famous, let every nation sing, praise to the king of kings.

Let's make it be famous, so the whole world will know, every sun gets its glow from you Lord. [x2]

Oh you're so underrated, in the same world you saved, Lord, you're hated by so many.

So if just for the moment, I want to make sure you don't go unnoticed. I want to make you be famous.

Let's make it be famous, let every nation sing, praise to the king of kings.

Let's make it be famous, so the whole world will know, every sun gets its glow from you Lord. [x2]
