

Be True

Isaac Delusion

Deep beneath the surface of your skin
Something else is begging to get out
Saying "Let go now, let go before it cracks"
Life is but a momentary twist

We could go away, fulfil the night
Screw your pills, don't take them in your bag
I am not afraid when fault lines show on your face
Don't keep your tongue tied or go undercover
Yeah

Don't keep your tongue tied or go undercover

Go on, show them who you are
Don't be scared of breaking new ground
Life is just one more try
Let's go galvanize the night
Shameless lovers
Blameless crimes
Give it all another try

Just to feel the magic in your hands
Just to feel your love, to understand
No one's here to tell us what to do
I got to say your eyes are pretty blue

And you'll be true
Out of the blue
Yes, you must try
And you'll be true
That's up to you
Yes, you can cry

Let's roll around town
To see the old house
Where you grew up long ago
Where the world was ebb and flow
Don't speak, let our silence tell the truth

See how life is passing by
Never let the devil say what's right
No one's here to tell us what to do
I got to say your eyes are pretty blue
Just to feel the magic in your hand
Just to feel your love to understand

And you'll, be true
Out of the blue
Yes you must try
And you'll, be true
That's up to you
Yes you can cry
