

Hell, it's so delicate to operate
With no eyes contact I got your name
On a piece of paper
But I miss data
I lost the frame, well nevermind
Under a lazy rain in a long lost train
I let it in someone else's pain
Inside my chest
But I let it vanish and let it flow
On the internet

All the colors you painted
Just looks the same
Don't you play the game?
Fix me and mess me up, mess me up and fix me
Just to entertain them
Well, that's insane
Don't you play the game?
Mess me up and fix me, fix me and mess me up
(Fix me and mess me up)

Hell, it's so intricate
Try to make connections since we've lost the feeling
I'm gathering tons of informations
But did I miss something?
I gess the flame, well nevermind

All the colors you painted
Just looks the same
Don't you play the game?
Fix me and mess me up, mess me up and fix me
Just to entertain them
Well, that's insane
Don't you play the game?
Mess me up and fix me, fix me and mess me up
