

for you, patiently

isaac gracie

Well, I'm on my own
You left me here
With legs made of stone
Choking on beer
Well I guess that's you know
To take what you need
And if you wanna come home
You know where I'll be

Sail away from me
Sail away from me
And I will wait patiently
For you
For you

Now the damage is done
You're a cloud in the sky
Blocking my sun
Passing me by Way up in the blue
I wish you could see
I'm waiting for you
I'm down on my knees

Sail away from me
Sail away from me
And I will wait patiently
For you
For you
