

Good For You

Isabel LaRosa

Baby, I just wanna look good for you

Boy, I hope you know you're trouble
I can see the devil in your eyes
You never show me how you struggle
But we both know that you're terrified
Yeah, I think I'm seeing double
I'm all yours, you know, boy, I can't lie
Can't lie

Baby, I just wanna look good for you
Break the rules I shouldn't for you
Kiss you like there's nothing to lose
Baby, I just wanna look good for you
Your God won't like what I do for you
Darling, I don't care what you put me through

Boy, you know you talk so nice
Empty promises just ain't enough
Baby, just let go of your pride
And I'll forgive you for the way it was
Yeah, you're pretty when you lie
But I forget that, darling, when we touch
We touch

Baby, I just wanna look good for you
Break the rules I shouldn't for you
Kiss you like there's nothing to lose
Baby, I just wanna look good for you
Your God won't like what I do for you
Darling, I don't care what you put me through

Good for you, good for you, good for you
Good for you, good for you, good for you
Good for you, good for you, good for you
Good for you, good for you, good for you
Good for you, good for you, good for you
Good for you, good for you, good for you

Baby, I just wanna look good for you
Break the rules I shouldn't for you
Kiss you like there's nothing to lose
Baby, I just wanna look good for you
Your God won't like what I do for you
Darling, I don't care what you put me through
