

Tired Of Missing You

Isac Elliot

Walked away, walked away
With a piece of mine, with a piece of mine
Like that other time
Ran away, ran away
Didn't even cry, didn't even cry
Baby, not this time

This love's a merry that goes down
I'm tired of sticking around to play one of your games
This love was crashed into the ground
So now I put out the flame

I just want you to know, know, know
I'm tired of missing you
I gotta let go, go, go
I'm tired of missing you
So baby, I'm saying bye bye
Made up my mind
Girl, that was the last time
I want you to know, know, know, know, know, know

Like the sun, like the sun
Yeah, you made it shine, yeah you made it shine
No, I can't deny
Like the rain, like the rain
Made it black and white, made it black and white
Feeling gray inside

This love's a merry that goes down
I'm tired of sticking around to play one of your games
This love was crashed into the ground
So now I put out the flame

I just want you to know, know, know
I'm tired of missing you
I gotta let go, go, go
I'm tired of missing you
So baby, I'm saying bye bye
Made up my mind
Girl, that was the last time
I want you to know, know, know, know, know, know

I just want you to know

Walked away, walked away
With a piece of mine, with a piece of mine
Like that other time, time, time

I just want you to know, know, know
I'm tired of missing you
I gotta let go, go, go
I'm tired of missing you
So baby, I'm saying bye bye
Made up my mind
Girl, that was the last time
I'm tired of missing you

I just want you to know
