

Amberlea

Isak Danielson

Hello my babe, how are you now?
I miss your face when I made you smile
I hope you feel the way I do when life runs through Goodbye is all I knew

When we were young, we made a pact
We'd stay in love and find our light
But now in life I wonder if you still love me
Like you did, my Amberlea

Hold my hand again
Don't let this be the very end
Of our fairytale
(And I'm falling, falling, falling)
Hold my hand again
And you will finally believe
Like you did, my Amberlea
(And I'm falling, falling, falling)

I forgot the taste of your empire
I heard our nights has made it higher
And when the days end the only one you need
Is me, my Amberlea

Hold my hand again
Don't let this be the very end
Of our fairytale
(And I'm falling, falling, falling)
Hold my hand again
And you will finally believe
Like you did, my Amberlea
(And I'm falling, falling, falling)

Still need your body, I wanna hold you close
I can hear the sirens is leading on and on
I still miss your body, please hold me close
Still need your body, I wanna hold you close
I can hear the sirens is leading on and on
I still miss your body, please hold me close
So when the day is done, I'm the one you're calling home

(Another day, another day I'm the one you're calling home)
Hold my hand again
Don't let this be the very end
Of our fairytale
(Another day, another day I'm the one you're calling home)
Hold my hand again
And you will finally believe
Like you did, my Amberlea
