

Back Again

Isak Danielson

Close your eyes and fall sleep
I'm sitting right here
Make the hitches disappear
Whenever I'm near

Hide your lies and hide your sorrow, sorrow
Who know I don't feel the same tomorrow
It's been too long
It's been too hard to
Reach you
Reach you baby
I only wanted you to be faithful
I only wanted us to be able
To love again
Baby you know that we are tasteful
I'm coming back again
I'm coming back again

I'm coming back again

You know me well you know my law
I don't tend to hold on
But when you're gone your face is still
Don't believe in her
But you're my baby no one else
It's been too long
It's been too hard to
Reach you
Reach you baby
I only wanted you to be faithful
I only wanted us to be able
To love again
Baby you know that we are tasteful
I'm coming back again
I'm coming back again
I only wanted you to be faithful
I only wanted us to be able
To love again

Baby you know that we are tasteful
I'm coming back again
I'm coming back again

I only wanted you to be faithful
I only wanted us to be able
To love again
Baby you know that we are tasteful
I'm coming back again
I'm coming back again
