

Backing Down

Isak Danielson

I can feel the story changing
As you're sleeping by my side
Do you still feel your own heart racing
When you're standing next to mine?

Oh, oh, oh...

I'll always, always be right there
Forever, always hold your hand
But maybe you were right
That I'm only wasting my time
I'm backing down
I am backing down

Did you care for the time I gave you?
Or have you ever understood?
Now someone else is feeling for you
But could he make you feel this good?

Oh, oh, oh...
I, I won't know

But I'll always, always be right there
Forever, always hold your hand
But maybe you were right
That I'm only wasting my time
I am backing down

Build me up, but still I crumble
The sound of your voice makes me hallow
I tried to swim, but it's too shallow
It's too far

But I'll always, always be right there
Forever, always hold your hand
Well maybe you were right
That I'm only wasting my time
But I am backing down
