

Run to You

Isak Danielson

I was eighteen, you looked twenty
I never thought you'd fall in love
I tried running, we end up walking
Remember how I felt so young

Did you change or was it me that was changing
Did you see it in my wondering eyes
I can't walk away from the way that you're feeling
Scared to be the one that makes you cry

I will run to you
I will run to you
With all of my power and all that I'll do
I will run to you

Maybe I tried a little too hard
To let you know I was your friend
Should we stay here, I could tell you
I no longer want to pretend

Since I met you I have known that I liked you
I have told you many times before
Now I can't help but feel that I love you
Can you say that you love me too?

I will run to you
I will run to you
With all of my power and all that I'll do
I will run to you

I will run to you
I will run to you
With all of my power and all that I'll do
I will run to you
I will run to you
