

Say Something

Isak Danielson

Say something, I'm giving up on you
I'll be the one if you want me to
And anywhere I would have followed you
Say something, I'm giving up on you

And I, feeling so small
It was over my head
And on nothing at all
And I, would stumble and fall
Still learning to love, to starting to crawl

Say something, I'm giving up on you
Sorry that I couldn't get to you
And anywhere I would have followed you
Say something, I'm giving up on you

And I, would swallow my pride
You're the one that I love, and I'm saying goodbye

Say something, I'm giving up on you
Sorry that I couldn't get to you
And anywhere I would have followed you, oh...
Say something, I'm giving up on you
Say something, I'm giving up on you
Say something