

The Cold Dream

Isengard

So morning came at last
After a sleepless night
My tears have dried
But in my heart
I will cry for you

You said you were leaving
Leaving for good this time
I pray that you'll stay
And I thought
That you would read my mind

So baby tell me, why did you leave me
Left me far behind with a broken heart
It was you and I, forever
Voices in my mind
Told me you and I would be together
Forever
I feel for you

So dawning came at last
After a long cold night
I wish you were here
But now you're gone
And all I feel is fear

You said: If you need me
Think of the times we had
But now when the flame has died
I still mourn the memories of you