

Under the Dragons Wing

Isengard

From the depth of the fire
From beyond the oceans
They were born to darkness
In the mountains that speak

Silence is broken
By wings of steel
Hear ancient evil
Echo through the night

Under the dragon's wing

See the dragon's rising
To a sheltering sky
See the clouds in the distance
Burst into flames

Eyes in the dark
Seeking the fear
Ice of the dawn
Dragons they are near

Under the dragon's wing

Where angels dare to tread you'll find them
When destiny has fled behind them
