I know we tried
We failed but it's alright
Been living a lie
I can't help myself sometimes
You had my heart in your hands
And you swore that you would let go
I gave you the keys to my soul
And you made yourself at home
I blame it all on myself
I couldn't even stay

I know we tried
We failed but it's alright
Been living a lie
I can't help myself sometimes
You had my heart in your hands
And you swore that you would let go
I gave you the keys to my soul
And you made yourself at home
