

Big Shot

Islander

So you think you are a big shot?
Some kind of star that can never burn out?
So you think you are a big shot?
I can smell a phony from a mile away

I see in you standing in the corner
With your head held high
Clapping your hands for nobody but yourself

So you think you are a big shot?
So you think you are a big shot?

(Don't wanna be like you)
You push me to the edge
Sometimes, sometimes
(Don't wanna be like you)
You push me to the edge
Sometimes, sometimes

So you think you are a big shot?
Some kind of rebel without a cause?
So you think you are a big shot?
I can smell a phony from a mile away

You think you've climbed the highest mountain
When you haven't even taken the first step
Even taken the first step

So you think you are a big shot?
So you think you are a big shot?

(Don't wanna be like you)
You push me to the edge
Sometimes, sometimes
(Don't wanna be like you)
You push me to the edge
Sometimes, sometimes

Who do you think you are?
Who do you think you are?
Don't wanna be like you
Don't wanna be like you
So who do you think you are?
Who do you think you are?
Don't wanna be like you
Don't wanna be like you

I'll never be like you
I'll never be like you

Don't wanna be like you
Don't wanna be like you
I'll never be like you

You push me to the edge
Sometimes, sometimes
(Don't wanna be like you)

You push me to the edge
Sometimes, sometimes

You push me to the edge
You push me to the edge
