

Die Dreaming (Morir Soñando)

Islander

Wake up the sun is shining
This place is still without regret
The milk and the orange they've just met
Tomorrow still exists
You feel the winter fade
There's no more tears there's no more fears we're gonna be okay

Tell me the truth do you want me to lie to you
Is that what lovers do
Tell me the truth do you want me to lie to you
Is that what lovers do

Oh oh oh, it's not the end of the world
We could still die dreaming
Oh oh oh, it's not the end of the world
Oh oh oh, it's not the end of the world
We could still die dreaming
Oh oh oh, it's not the end of the world

Mix the clouds with the sun right the wrongs that we've done
Fix the things that we've broken mute the lies that we've spoken
Grim reaper love letter feeling sick while feeling better
Mix the clouds with the sun right the wrongs that we've done
First time last chance heart break romance
Mix the clouds with the sun right the wrongs that we've done

Oh oh oh, it's not the end of the world
We could still die dreaming
Oh oh oh, it's not the end of the world
Oh oh oh, it's not the end of the world
We could still die dreaming
Oh oh oh, it's not the end of the world

Morir Soñando
We could still die dreaming

Morir Soñando
We could still die dreaming
Morir Soñando

Oh oh oh, it's not the end of the world
We could still die dreaming
Oh oh oh, it's not the end of the world
Oh oh oh, it's not the end of the world
We could still die dreaming
Oh oh oh, it's not the end of the world
