

Kingdom

Islander

And the trees know the end is near
Like rain on the leaves of the underside
And the waves will be shaken with fear
And the ships and men remain memories

Castle of your highest power
Broken crowns lying on the ground
While you're trying to reason with fire
Your kingdom is falling down

Oh no, what did you see me do?
Did you catch me doing something wrong?
Well... I do
And now there's superstitious governments
All my friends are skeletons
They make their graves

Castle of your highest power
Broken crowns lying on the ground
While you're trying to reason with fire
Your kingdom is falling down
Oh no... what did you see me do?
