

Mayday

Islander

Mayday, mayday...

Mayday, mayday
We're headed for destruction
Kamikaze, bring the bloodshed
Reaper reaping what we sow
Big brother in the sky as they watch us in our homes
Set us up for defeat
Take us down in the street and turn our life into a crime scene
We're just targets marked as dangerous
Handcuff, slaughter, martyr us
Then claim that their a part of us

It's got me feeling so low low low low low
It's got me feeling so low low low low low

Is it just me?
Maybe it's me
Or is it just you?
Maybe it's you
That's got me feeling so...
It's got me feeling so low low low low low
It's got me feeling so...
It's got me feeling so...
It's got me feeling so low

Mayday, mayday...

Red alert, red alert
I was having fun, but now I'm bleeding through my shirt
Raining bullets from the sky
Everybody running from the blame they can't deny
Wish you could see it through my eyes
See each other eye to eye
But we're too hung up on the lies
To see what's really in control now

It's got me feeling so low low low low low
It's got me feeling so low low low low low

Is it just me?
Maybe it's me
Or is it just you?
Maybe it's you
That's got me feeling so...
It's got me feeling so low low low low low
It's got me feeling so...
It's got me feeling so...
It's got me feeling so low

Mayday, mayday
We're headed for destruction
Mayday, mayday
Mayday, mayday
I'm ready, bring the bloodshed

Is it just me?

Maybe it's me
Or is it just you?
Maybe it's you
That's got me feeling so...
It's got me feeling so low low low low low
It's got me feeling so...
It's got me feeling so...
It's got me feeling so low
