

Tear It Down

Islander

I've been writing hits, while you've been blazin' 'em
They pitched some hits but I'm still not taking 'em
Swing swing swing, all American rejects
Don't play by the rules, usual suspect

You've got the millionaire magic man writing all your songs
No wonder all the kiddies sing along
We'll uncover your lies and watch your empire crumble
Watch your empire crumble

Watch your empire crumble
Watch your empire crumble

We're gonna tear it down
We're gonna tear it down
We're gonna tear it down
Right now

We're gonna tear it down
We're gonna tear it down
We're gonna tear it down
Right now

You keep laughing at Tom DeLonge
But what's gonna happen if he proves you wrong?
Bubble busted
You trusted the wrong lie
Found another sound replaced it with the wrong style
I'm not a punk rock king, but gotta punk rock dream
While all they want is money in the mainstream
We'll uncover your lies and watch your empire crumble
Watch your empire crumble

We're gonna tear it down
We're gonna tear it down
We're gonna tear it down
Right now

We're gonna tear it down
We're gonna tear it down
We're gonna tear it down
Right now

We're gonna tear it down
We're gonna tear it down
We're gonna tear it down
Right now
