

The Outsider

Islander

Lately, I've been
Feeling these mixed emotions
Something tells me
Tells me that I'm still broken

I got nothin' to prove
Just speakin' the truth
I'm here to tell you I can't fake it

I can't change who I am
(Always been the outsider, now I'm lookin' in)
I don't care... It's who I am
(Always been the outsider, I am the outsider)

Lisin' my cool. What should I do?
I don't know where we're goin'
Sick of my tune. Feeling the weight of the moon
Gravity pullin'
I see the sunlight is fading
On all these dreams that I'm chasing
I'm so tired of waiting
So tired of waiting

I got nothin' to prove
Just speakin' the truth
I'm here to tell you I can't fake it

I can't change who I am
(Always been the outsider, now I'm lookin' in)
I don't care... It's who I am
(Always been the outsider, I am the outsider)

I am the outsider
I am the outsider

I can't change who I am
I don't care... It's who I am

I can't change who I am
(Always been the outsider, now I'm lookin' in)
I don't care... It's who I am
(Always been the outsider, I am the outsider)
I can't change who I am
(Always been the outsider, now I'm lookin' in)
I don't care... It's who I am
(Always been the outsider, I am the outsider)

I am the outsider
I am the outsider
