

Wait for It

Islander

Turn your eyes my way
Don't move so slow
I can't let go
Your name is written in the book of death
Say what you need
No, don't try to be proud
You want to be free
Yeah, you want eternity
I'm seeing shadows
I feel it, I feel it

When the sun rises in the morning
You'll feel a shockwave through you
Wait for it

Do you feel your soul, lazy and cold?
Are you scared of what you're finding?
The reasons that you're dying are the same
Oh, you're getting weaker
And you should be mourning these scars
It's not funny, we could die!
Wash your hands clean
And kiss your own will goodbye

When the sun rises in the morning
You'll feel a shockwave through you
Wait for it
And when the day breaks I will stand in the morning sun
I will be okay
I will stay and feel the warmth
Like kids on the wedding day
