Devout

Gone away, gone away, I miss you All the way, will I see you again? Sitting here, sitting here, the car is outdoors When you come back, we'll get away

Then the alarm went off Alarms went off, I heard it I hope to God I don't hear gunshots And the windowpane is closed The way some violence sings pretty Sirens in the distance closing in Blending in, the casualty shrieking Casually I headed for the highway

Sold you out, sold you out Told them all the things that you'd done Sold you out, sold you out Tell me all the things that you had done

You were so devout, you were so committed to me Then I got away

I was right outside, Going to drive away Ready to split the money equally
