

No You Don't

Islands

don't buy dope from the man you don't know i don't know you won't don't get stuck in his pickup truck in arms reach, front seat man, you're outta luck flush it downstream before its found, drowned, swimming in your blood stream if you must, crush it up into dust if you must cut it up then lie down but i won't let you tell me what i can't do

you'll try to scare me
but you're never gonna catch me so don't you tell me how to run that race you said don't back down in your wedding gown don't make a sound, you never made a sound don't chime in with your oppinion you dont need to object, man, you're such a wreck rush to find a pulse before you're deep in the dirt crushed by a cross like jumping out of a moving train coming down is such a pain

so don't you tell me how to run that race
