

Pumpkin

Islands

Hold out your hand
And take what you can
If you've got a feeling that this feeling might fade away
All you have to do is lay this love to waste

Do what I say, do what I say, do what I say
Oh, I can change
Oh, I can change
Oh, I can change your ways

It feels like it was planned
And there's something sinister
The man with the head in the sand
But you really shouldn't make such assumptions, pumpkin

So hold out your hand
And take what you can