

Boulevard

Isobel Campbell

Breathless in the whys of sighs
Keep your heart up, on the prize
Driving down the boulevard
Travelling down the boulevard

Man stands helpless on the street
This is where the hungry meet
Drifting down the boulevard
Travelling on the boulevard

Welcome to the land of dreams
Nothing's ever as it seems
Would you save them if you could?
Surrender to the highest good

Always with so much to do
I know you can feel it too
There's change up on the boulevard
Travelling on the boulevard

Welcome to the land of dreams
Nothing's ever as it seems
Would you save them if you could?
Surrender to the highest good

Got to stop this blue on blue
What you seek is seeking you
There's Angels on the boulevard
Driving down the boulevard.
