

Everything Falls Apart

Isobel Campbell

Are you strong enough?
Are you good enough?
Can you hang in tough?
Man did life get rough
Actuality
New reality
We are so in flux
Have you had enough?

Everything falls apart you son of a bitch
Quit stepping on my heart you son of a bitch

So homogenous
Don't know what to trust
Are you real or both?
Don't know what we got
Cyber vacuous
Be a slave to lust
Leave me in the dust
Go do what you must

Everything falls apart you son of a bitch
Quit stepping on my heart you son of a bitch
Everything falls apart
Everything falls apart
Everything falls apart you son of a bitch

New phenomenon
Ghosted, run and gone
When your thoughts get bent
Don't know what they meant
We are poles apart
Give me back my heart
Say you're so lucky
Then abandon me

Everything falls apart you son of a bitch
Quit stepping on my heart you son of a bitch
Everything falls apart
Everything falls apart
Everything falls apart you son of a bitch

Everything falls apart you son of a bitch
I'll make a brand new start you son of a bitch
Everything falls apart
Everything falls apart
Everything falls apart you son of a bitch

I am good and free
Innocent, feel me
I can love and see
This was meant to be
Make a brand new start
Leading from the heart
Hurry up say so
Level up, let's go

Everything falls apart you son of a bitch
