Without You

Issues

What’s the point of holding hands at the end of the hall
What’s the point of skipping class and getting lost in the stal l
What’s the point of falling for, in a world of falling floors
She a fan of the Wu so for the moment it’s yours
I can’t read your mind but that kush do tell
I can reach behind and squeeze and greet you well
Evade your exes round you talking bout when we chillin
Good guys never mattered when euphoria’s the healing

Miss sugar honey ice tea
I used to see waterfalls come to me knees
Gotta shoulder you can lean on
Wouldn’t dream of leading you on

No I can’t read your mind this time as much as I've tried
I just wish I knew, I just wish I knew
And then this whole time wouldn’t have been spent without you

One shot down make the soul go free
Two shots down make the door for that key
Three shots down she finally said it to me
Yo, can’t you read the signs?
Now I’m planning for that pedigree
In the back of my jeep
Moving the passenger seat
The passion’s lashing and dashing
And galaxies(sees) the climaxion(action)
Love can beat all the madness
Fully deplete all the sadness and I know

Miss sugar honey ice tea
I used to see waterfalls come to me knees
Gotta shoulder you can lean on
Wouldn’t dream of leading you on

No I can’t read your mind this time as much as I've tried
I just wish I knew, I just wish I knew
And then this whole time wouldn’t have been spent without you
