

Echo

Isyana Sarasvati

Blinded by sunlight
Darkness covered Paradise
Nature is my second home
It all makes sense now
Can tell you with a single song
Tapping feet can make us one

I think about
Two steps left
Won't make it alright
Get down low
All we need is one night
Just let the wind blow
Arms out like airplanes
I can feel it in my chest

As we echo
(Let it echo, echo)
(Let it echo, echo)
(Let it echo, echo)
(Let it echo, echo)
(Let it echo, echo)
(Let it echo, echo)

Has got me spinning
Clinging on to every sounds
Stars will take us back around
Searching for colors
Fireworks that touch the ground
Green is all i ever found

I think about
Two steps right
Won't make it alright
Get down low
All we need is tonight
Just let the wind blow
Arms out like airplanes
I can feel it in my chest

As we echo
(Let it echo, echo)
(Let it echo, echo)
(Let it echo, echo)
(Let it echo, echo)

Like it or not
these echoes will find you
You wear the crown
of a thousand more
(Let it echo, echo)
(Let it echo, echo)

Uh...
I always knew who I belong to Huh...
I always knew that if I lost you

Ocean always gonna last
And tree never dig in the past
Stand up and let the music echo

(Let it echo, echo)
(Let it echo, echo)
(Let it echo, echo)
(Let it echo, echo)

Like it or not
these echoes will find you
You wear the crown
of a thousand more
(Let it echo, echo)
Let it echo, echo
(Let it echo, echo)
Let it echo
